

TRELLIS

A church cannot become healthy and missional without healthy and missional disciples. Trellis is a new resource designed to help churches create structures that support spiritual and emotional growth. This one-day experience integrates best practices from Emotionally Healthy Spirituality and other tools that help people grow more holistically. Participants will develop a vision and learn simple, practical tools for equipping people to become fruitful leaders that intentionally build STRONG Churches.