MORDECAI AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING PARTNERSHIP NOMINATION GUIDELINES

In Esther 2, Mordecai partners with Esther to save her people. He designed the plan which she followed at great risk of her life and gave her the words to say to the king to deliver her people. We seek to honor Covenant men who partner with women leaders in support, advocacy and mentoring with this award.

The Mordecai Award for Outstanding Partnership is a way for us to recognize the work of men among us who have served as partners to women in ministry. This award is offered to a nominated male minister in an Evangelical Covenant Church setting (administrators, teachers, pastors, missionaries, etc) who has demonstrated active support of women in ministry, through providing advocacy, resources, support and dialogue on behalf of all women in ministry.

The Mordecai Award for Outstanding Partnership is awarded bi-annually (in odd numbered years) beginning in 2007.

Applications are due May 1, 2015. The chosen recipient will be notified by email by May 30, 2015. He will be presented with the award at the Ministerium Annual Meeting during the ECC Annual Meeting on June 2015 in Kansas City, Missouri.

To nominate (no self nominating please)

1. Complete an ACCW Mordecai Nomination Form.
2. Write a one page single spaced essay describing why your nominee should be considered for this award. Please include your relationship to the nominee and how his ministry affects the spiritual journey of clergy women.

We ask that the chosen recipient make every effort to attend ACCW events throughout the year in their conference and the ACCW Midwinter Conference meeting and ECC Annual Meeting in June. We also request that after receiving the award, the recipient submits a photo of himself.

Please mail all paperwork to: ACCW Mordecai Award
