STATE OF THE MISSION

President Tammy Swanson-Draheim shared a vision for the Covenant, “That we would live increasingly into the kingdom of God through a prayerful, intergenerational, multiethnic, growing movement of churches, served by women and men striving to follow in the way of Jesus by loving others as Jesus loves us.” The full president’s report can be viewed here.

A unique element of Gather this year was the Intentional Discipleship Opportunities with sisters and brothers from our global Covenant family—partners in the gospel who remind us of the beautiful, diverse body of Christ around the world. Panel discussions were conducted on church planting, generosity and hospitality; peacemaking and immigration; and prayer and next-generation ministry, bringing together practitioners and theologians from across the globe to share firsthand experiences and practical strategies, as well as to inspire one another in mission together.
