Cell Phone Policy

Youth leaders are encouraged to decide upon and enforce a cell phone policy that works best for their particular youth groups. Keep in mind, however, that texting may be used as an element during Mainstage each evening.

When will I find out our housing information?

Final packets, which will include a leader's guide (which is different from the guidebook) and housing information, will be mailed out by 2-day UPS no later than Monday, July 9.

Where can I find the counselor and staff orientation and training?

After Youth Workers Connection 2012, you will be able to access training via the CHIC2012 website. If this is a return visit, simply login with the email and password you previously provided, or, if this is your first visit, click on the "Register Here" link.

You must register as a staff person. On the second page of the adult application you will mark "yes" to the question: "Have you already been recruited by CHIC staff to volunteer in a non-counselor position?"

Answer "prayer team" for the question: "What position?"

And answer "Nicole Bullock" for the question: "By whom?"

All prayer team members are required to meet the staff qualifications and fulfill the staff requirements listed on the adult application instruction sheet. The cost to attend CHIC is $545.00 due by May 9th 2012. This includes housing and your meals while you are on site.

Can I hold a spot for an adult or a student and then give a name later?

Yes, you can hold a spot for both students and adults but you'll have to follow the steps below to make the process work smoothly. Remember, too, that deposits are non-refundable, and pay close attention to the cancellation and substitution policies.

- On your group registration form include this person in your count and in the amount that you are submitting.
- On the side of the group registration form where you are asked to list the names of those you are registering, fill in, "Adult (or Student) – name coming later."
- Also include a cover letter explaining that you are holding a spot and paying for them now, and will be providing the name later.
- When you finally do add the name for this person make sure you include a cover letter explaining that the name you are now providing is taking the place that you had reserved earlier.
