

June 2014

THE DRUMBEAT

A Publication of the African American Ministers Association

Rev. Catherine Gilliard, Secretary

AAMA GATHERINGS AT GATHER '14

Join us in Chicago, Illinois at the Hyatt Regency Hotel on Friday, June 27th

AAMA Fellowship Reception

Rev. Debbie Griffith-Samuels, AAMA President

The AAMA will hold its annual fellowship reception on Friday, June 27th, from 5:00 - 6:30 p.m., in the Midway

Room of the Hyatt Regency Hotel. The celebration reception is open to members who are in good standing and 2 of their invited guests.

We will recognize our two AAMA ordinands, Rev. Debbie Griffith Samuels and Rev. Jose Humphreys, AAMA members who have graduated from seminary as part of the Class of 2014 and pastors whose churches are being voted into the Covenant.

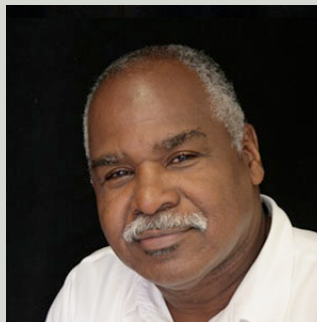

This is also the last opportunity to pay your 2014 dues to be eligible for participation and vote at our 2015 Midwinter business meeting. Come and fellowship with us!

Rev. Nicole Bullock
Pastor Blue Oaks Covenant Church
Friday morning preacher

AAMA Speakers Gather '14

Be in attendance when two of our own preach during Gather '14, the annual meeting of the ECC; Rev. Nicole Bullock, pastor of Blue Oaks Covenant Church and Rev. Dr. Robert Owens, Superintendent of the Southeast Conference.

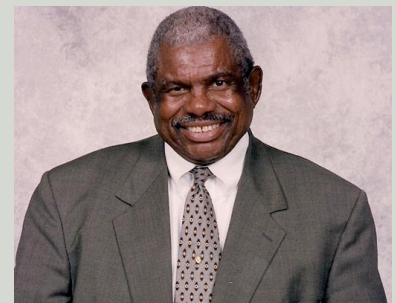

Rev. Dr. Robert Owens
Superintendent, Southeast Conference
Saturday evening preacher

The AAMA

The AAMA is a subset of the Covenant ministerium supporting African American credentialed clergy within the Covenant and African American seminary students who will hold credentials within the Covenant.

The AAMA annually awards the Dr. Willie B. Jemison Scholarship to African American students at North Park Theological Seminary (NPTS), sponsors two Covenant Kids for Congo, supports our two African American Covenant missionaries and promotes participation of the mission priorities of the Covenant and NPTS.

AAMA Rev. Dr. Willie B. Jemison Scholarship

Remember to bring your donation for the AAMA Rev. Dr. Willie B. Jemison Scholarship in our support of assisting in the credentialing of future African American pastors and ministers.