

3.4 INTENTIONAL DISCIPLESHIP

Identifying Learning Styles

Learning Styles Inventory

Directions: Read the descriptive statements followed by four alternatives. On the line preceding each alternative, mark the number 4, 3, 2, 1. Each number is to be used in each section one time. The number 4 is most like you, 3 next, 2 next, and 1 least like you.

I do my best work:

- _____ A. alone, putting together information so it will work
_____ B. when I'm with other people
_____ C. alone, after gathering information I need
_____ D. brainstorming new ideas and trying things not many people would dare to try

I like to solve problems by:

- _____ A. checking out my own ideas
_____ B. talking with other people to generate solutions
_____ C. examining the facts and finding the right answer
_____ D. making guesses or following hunches

I like to work:

- _____ A. with my hands, as well as my mind
_____ B. in a colorful working environment
_____ C. at a desk or table
_____ D. playing with new ideas, making intuitive guesses on what works

People describe me as:

- _____ A. a hard worker, results-oriented person
_____ B. a really nice person
_____ C. a really smart person
_____ D. a creative person

Three words that describe me are:

- _____ A. active, realistic, practical
_____ B. friendly, sharer, hugger
_____ C. rational, analytic, smart
_____ D. curious, leader, imaginative

Part of my self-identity is wrapped up in:

- _____ A. how well my creations work
_____ B. the number of friends I have and the strength of those friendships
_____ C. how smart others think I am
_____ D. how many new ideas I have

When you have finished, total the number in each category and enter the number below:

A _____ B _____ C _____ D _____

Inventory adapted from Learning Styles by Marlene LeFever, David C. Cook Publishing, 1995. Used with permission.